Infringement Policy Notice

commZoom complies with the Online Copyright Infringement Liability Limitation Act of 1998. As required by the Act, we have adopted a policy to terminate services to account holders or subscribers who repeatedly infringe copyrights. In the event that we receive a determination that any subscriber or account holder has infringed another's copyright through the use of our system or network, we reserve the right to terminate service to that subscriber or account holder after receiving notice of any further copyright infringement by that subscriber or account holder.

commZoom accommodates and does not interfere with standard technical measures to identify and protect copyrighted works, subject to the limitations of the Act.

Repeat Infringer Policy

commZoom complies with the Online Copyright Infringement Liability Limitation Act of 1998 (“Act”). As required by the Act, we have adopted a policy to address broadband accounts involved in repeated copyright infringement. Our repeat infringer policy follows:

If we receive more than 10 copyright infringement notices within a 60-day period regarding a broadband account, we will suspend that broadband account's service for 60 days;

If we receive another copyright infringement notice regarding that same broadband account within 60 days of service suspension, we will terminate that broadband account's service for 3 months; and,

If we receive another copyright infringement notice regarding that same broadband account, we will permanently terminate service to that broadband account.
